COME TO THE WATER

John Foley, S.J.

1. O let all who thirst, let them come to the water.
2. And let all who seek, let them come to the water.
3. And let all who toil, let them come to the water.
4. And let all the poor, let them come to the water.

And let all who have nothing, bring the ones who are laden,
And let all who have nothing, bring the ones who are laden,
And let all who are weary, bring the ones who are laden,
Bring the ones who are laden,

1. let them come to the Lord: without money, without price.
2. let them come to the Lord: without money, without strife.
3. let them come to the Lord: without labor, without rest.
4. bring them all to the Lord: without children, without might.

Why should you pay the Lord? Why should you pay the Lord? Why should you spend your life, except for the Lord?
How can your soul find rest, except for the Lord?
Easily the load and light: come to the Lord.

Light Dawns on a Weary World

Words: Mary Louise Bringle
Music: William P. Rowan

1. Light dawns on a weary world when eyes begin to see all
2. Love grows in a weary world when hungry hearts find bread and
3. Hope blooms in a weary world when creatures, once forlorn, find people’s dignity. Light dawns on a weary world: the children’s dreams are fed. Love grows in a weary world: the wilder ness re-born. Hope blooms in a weary world: the promised day of justice comes. The trees shall promised feast of plenty comes. The dry lands, gush with springs; promised green of Eden comes. the hills and mountains shall break forth with singing! We shall go out in joy, and be led forth in peace, as all the world in wonder echoes Shalom.
