All Are Welcome

1. Let us build a house where love can dwell and all can safely live. A place where saints and words are strong and true. Where all God's children

2. Let us build a house where prophets speak, and water, wine and wheat; A banquet hall on yond the wood and stone, To heal and strengthen, children tell how hearts learn to forgive. Built of

3. Let us build a house where love is found in songs and visions heard And loved and treasured, holy ground, where peace and justice meet. Here the serve and teach, and live the Word they've known. Here the taught and claimed as words within the Word. Built of

4. Let us build a house where hands will reach becross shall stand as witness and as symbol of God's love of God, through Jesus, is revealed in time and outcast and the stranger bear the image of God's hopes and dreams and visions, rock of faith and vault of

5. Let us build a house where all are named, their tears and cries and laughter, prayers of faith and songs of grace; Here the love of Christ shall end divisions; grace; Here as one we claim the faith of Jesus;
   space, As we share in Christ the feast that frees us;
   face, Let us bring an end to fear and danger; grace. Let this house proclaim from floor to rafters:

All singing:

All are welcome, all are welcome, all are welcome in this place.
