EASTER WORSHIP
Pullen Memorial Baptist Church
April 4, 11:00 a.m.

Preparation for Worship
During this season of physical distancing, with the aid of technology we connect in worship. Though separated by location, all are invited to engage in worship together.

The Light of Presence
The lighting of a candle signifies the holy presence alive in all.

Orchestral Prelude
“Fanfare Prelude on ‘Ode to Joy’”
Arr. Jim Curnow

Call to Worship
Tommy Cook

Christ is rising!
Christ is rising indeed!
The Easter traditions of Pullen are reborn this morning.
For a baptismal remembrance full of wonder and joy, we say:
Alleluia!
For the renewal of celebration from its Lenten slumber, we say:
Alleluia!
For instrumentalists and singers that sound forth jubilant music, we say:
Alleluia!
And for bells that ring the joy of Easter morning, we say:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!

Hymn
Christ the Lord Is Risen Today
EASTER HYMN

Baptismal Affirmation
Chalice Overy

Affirming New Life

Prayers

Joys and Concerns

Easter Prayer

Hymn Anthem
Christ Still Rises
David Bjorlin/Benjamin Brody

Scripture Reading
Mark 16:1-8
Bryan Lee

Meditation and Communion
Easter: A Landing or Launch
Nancy E. Petty

Easter Exclamation
Hallelujah from Messiah
G.F. Handel

Benediction

Organ Postlude
Toccata from Symphonie No. 5
Charles-Marie Widor
Worship Leaders:
The Pullen Orchestra
with Christian McIvor, Guest Trumpeter
Congregational Voices
Tommy Cook, Minister with Children and Their Families
Chalice Overy, Associate Pastor
Bryan Lee, Minister with Youth and Their Families
Nancy E. Petty, Pastor
The Chancel Choir
with & Sarah W. Bowen, Violinist
& Guest Vocalist, David Mellnik
Larry E. Schultz, Minister of Music
Janice Hocutt, Organist

Audio/Visual & Livestream Technicians:
Nathan Powers, Henry Stephens-Powers, Bryan Lee, Dana Deaton, Jack Rakestraw

©
Streamed by permission of ONE LICENSE A-701723. All rights reserved.